Bob Jones

Bob Jones serves as Chief Operating Officer for Bethursday Development Corporation where he is currently coordinating the 38-acre master plan development along the eastern border of the English Avenue community.

Bob brings a 25-year experience gained with John Portman & Associates in his capacities as a Project Architect for Renaissance Center in Detroit and as the Owner's Representative and Managing Architect in the development of the New York Marriott Marquis Hotel. In New York, his responsibility was John Portman & Associates' primary on-site representative coordinating all architectural, engineering and consultant work and assisting the general contractor in the contract negotiations of all sub-contractors. His expertise in dealing with codes and working with building department officials resulted in his being named Vice President for Technical Services and Managing Associate for projects in Atlanta, New York, San Francisco, Hong Kong, Jakarta, Shanghai and other major cities.

Through his community involvement, Bob provides many service organizations and churches with his knowledge of the development and construction industries. His contributions in this arena and his professional experience served as the catalyst to launch his design and construction management company.

Mr. Jones is an active member of Antioch Baptist Church North where he serves in the Deacons' Ministry, Trustee Ministry, Chairman of Budget Committee, Assistant to Pastor on Planning and Development, and other numerous committees. He has served as the Interim Chair of the Northyards Business Park Community Fund. He is an Assistant Scoutmaster with Beecher Hills Elementary School. Bob is an active member of the English Avenue Neighborhood Association and NPU-L where he participates in various committees.
